VERY LITTLE INFLUENCE - Adm. Arthur Radford (Center) Talks with two members of the House Armed Services subcommittee, Reps. F. Radford said the actual influence of retired military officers on defense contract awards is "very small, but I wouldn't say it doesn't exist."

2 Crites Barns Struck by Fire

A strange turn of events resulted in fires in two barns, both parts of the H. M. Critts Estate located in different sections of the county.

One of the barns was damaged by fire yesterday morning and the other was destroyed last night. The morning fire was at the farm on the Florence Chapel Pike near Fox Post Office. The other was at the Critts farm on the Harrisburg-Fairfield Road in Madison Twp. near Ashville.

The barn near Ashville, rented by Maynard Marshall, burned to the ground. Also destroyed were a tractor and baler, a wagon loaded with straw, 100 bales of hay and 700 bales of hay.

State Highway Patrolman Gene Miller and Deputy Dwight Radcliff said no estimate of damage was made. The fire, discovered at about 10:40 p. m. yesterday, was visible in Williamsport and other distant points, the officers said.

DEPUTY Radcliff said the blaze apparently started in the north section of the two-story structure which measured 60 by 120 feet.

The fire was discovered by Joe Fausnaugh who is employed at the place by Marshall, the renter.

Firemen from the Ashville-Harrison and Madison Twp. of Franklin County answered the alarm. They said the blaze possibly could have been caused by electrical wiring.

Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff said the fire at the Florence Chapel Pike barn was extinguished before Williamsport Firemen reached the scene.

The blaze was discovered by Mr. Rivers who farms the land there. He and neighbors in the vicinity rushed to another farm nearby and borrowed a mobile water tank. They put the blaze out by using buckets, Sheriff Radcliff said.

Rivers encountered some difficulty when his auto ran out of gas while he was on the way to another farm house to put the mobile water tank in use.

Sheriff Radcliff said damage to the barn was not determined.

Five Suffer Injuries Here In Four Highway Accidents

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department investigated four highway accidents involving five injuries during the weekend. None of the injured were seriously hurt, according to Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff.

Two of the accidents involved motor vehicles, one came when a car struck an 11-year-old boy and the other was a motorcycle crash.

The first mishap was at 3:40 p. m. Saturday on Route 762 northwest of here where an auto operated by Darol A. Beardsley, 22, Lockbourne Air Force Base, crashed off the road on a curve and flipped over.

Beardsley was not injured. Kenneth Cochran, 20, also of the air base, suffered a concussion and lacerations. He was taken to the Lockbourne Air Force Base Hospital.

The second crash was at 7:50 a. m. Sunday on Routes 22 and 104 about three miles west of here. Deputy Radcliff said a car operated by Rufus S. Alexander, 37, Dayton, was struck in the rear by an auto driven by Louis Block, 48, Philadelphia, Pa.

Alpha Alexander, 38, a passenger, suffered neck and back injuries. Block received right knee and hand injuries. Both were treated at Berger Hospital.

Court Orders Stoutsville Transfer

Fairfield Board Not Expected To Shift Territory

Fifth District Court of Appeals Judge Robert B. Putman today ordered the Fairfield County Board of Education to transfer the Clearcreek (Stoutsville) School District to the Logan Elm School District, Pickaway County.

Judge Putman, Millersburg, ordered the Fairfield Board to transfer the territory immediately upon service of the order.

The only alternative for the Fairfield Board is to show cause why it did not transfer the territory as ordered on September 16 when the Appeals Court meets in Lancaster.

A writ of mandamus demanding this action was filed Friday in the Appeals Court by Joseph Asher, Columbus, on behalf of James E. Smith, Route 1, Stoutsville, both representing the Stoutsville Citizens Committee for Consolidation.

THE WRIT maintained that it is clear legal duty for the Fairfield Board to transfer the Clearcreek territory to Logan Elm.

Refusal to comply with this order and failure to show cause on September 16 could result in a stiff fine for the Fairfield Board.

Smith's writ stated that on March 29, 1958 the Fairfield Board received a petition containing 403 signatures (55 per cent) of persons who were qualified residents and electors of the Clearcreek District.

The petition asked that the Fairfield Board transfer the Stoutsville school district to Pickaway County.

The Fairfield Board certified the transfer proposal to the Fairfield County Board of Elections on May 22, 1958.

In the following November, 1958 election a total of 339 Clearcreek voters balloted in favor of the transfer and 226 cast ballots against such merger. This was a majority vote of 55.9 per cent, more than enough needed for the transfer.

THE WRIT further stated that the Fairfield Board did not contest the election. On April 17 the Logan Elm Board accepted the Clearcreek School District.

The Pickaway County Board of Education accepted Clearcreek on May 6 and filed an accurate map of the boundaries of the district with proper authorities.

The Fairfield Board disapproved the transfer of the Clearcreek district on March 3. It based its refusal on the opinion that the November, 1958 election was not duly and legally constituted.

It referred to what it termed "false and misleading representation of the issue on the ballot," which stated that the transfer was subject to the acceptance by the Clearcreek Board of Education, which voted 32 against consolidation.

Asher contends that the Clearcreek voters balloted with the intent to transfer to Logan Elm and were not concerned with how it would be done. He stated that the Fairfield Board was arguing on a "mere" technicality.

Observers of the situation stated today that the "shoe is now on the other foot". They are referring to the fact that the July 1 deadline for transfer is past and action has not been taken by the Fairfield Board.

Dale E. Gaines, 21, of Clinton St., suffered right arm injuries and lacerations when his motorcycle crashed off the S w a m p Road near Adelphi at 6:30 p. m. Sunday.

Gaines was treated and released at Berger Hospital.

Pickaway 1, Madison 3, Ross 3, Van Wert 1, Putnam 2, Paulding Allen 5, Mercer 3.

CUMMINS, Fairfield County Superintendent, stated at noon today, "I don't believe the Board of Education will comply with the order, but will wait and show cause on September 16—but of course this is unofficial for I can't speak for the board at present."

Cummins said the Board probably will meet the latter part of this week or the first part of next week to consider the matter.

He also stated that outside legal counsel will be employed to represent the Board and that the Fairfield County Prosecutor will act in an advisory capacity to prepare evidence showing cause on why the territory has not been transferred.

To a news conference on the eve of his departure for Moscow his trip did not change his mind about one thing: that the United States someday will live under a Soviet-like system.

Showdown Nears On Compensation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Far-reaching action to liberalize workers' compensation comes to a showdown in the Ohio House today.

"We will dispose of it one way or another," said House Speaker James A. Lantz (D-Fairfield).

Redrafted a half dozen times, the bill would increase weekly payments to injured workers from $40.25 to $54.25, boost death benefits from $12,000 to $18,000, do away with the present administrator and return to pre-1955 procedures for hearing claims.

A director with only administrative powers would replace the administrator and additional authority returned to the Industrial Commission.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle conferred with legislative leaders to urge reduction of weekly benefits to $49, maximum death payments to $15,000 and retention of the administrator.

The governor told newsmen he wants to make sure the measure can pass the Legislature, where opposition is diverse.

DiSalle reported signing into law more than a dozen bills. They include acts to permit two-year re-registration by mail and to allow transfer of hospital operations by cities to county commissioners.

He indicated he may veto a proposal for selling unwanted state park land to veterans groups and others for 10 per cent of appraised value.

Leaders termed the workers' compensation bill the last major House measure standing in the way of overdue adjournment by the formula and predicted that it might take a year or more to process such claims under proposed changes.

Reporting that attorneys for claimants receive 20 to 30 per cent of permanent partial awards, they quoted the chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Advisory Board as saying the compensation law should be changed to take care of injured workers "instead of somebody else."

Patrolman Jow Cisneros said the union promised to make an all-American try" at negotiating a strike-saving settlement.

McDonald, however, ruled out any further delay in a showdown. The union earlier had granted a two-week truce but it expires at midnight Tuesday.

Western diplomats said that in his leadoff speech Herter would offer certain inducements such as a cut in troop strength in West Berlin.

Herter and his colleagues want to know whether in accepting a moratorium with a deadline they would, in the Soviet view, be agreeing to give up their rights when the deadline expires.

If a Berlin compromise can be arranged, an East-West agreement on a summit conference to be held in the next two or three months seems certain.

In the first round of the conference the Western ministers refused even to discuss Gromyko's proposal to maintain the status quo in West Berlin for 18 months.

They insisted the U.S.S.R. must guarantee Western access to West Berlin until Germany was reunified.

As for the President's views, Herter read this statement to newsmen:

"There is opportunity and time for settlement to be reached before the strike deadline set by the union.

"In the interest of union members, the steel companies and the public, the President hopes that the union and the industry will continue to work for a settlement."

Hagerty said Eisenhower had not been in direct communication with either side in the dispute.

The press secretary noted, however, that on June 27 Eisenhower urged that both sides continue negotiations — without interruption of production — until a new contract had been agreed upon.

Wean Engineering Co., Inc., is expected to complete the new unit in time for operations late in 1960.

Armco announced plans for the new unit Sunday and said it would nearly double the steel-coating capacity of its works here.

A spokesman for Armco said the unit will be able to zinc-coat 71-inch wide steel at the rate of 300 feet per minute or 30 tons an hour.

Cloud expressed strong opposition to the proposal.

ARMCO PLANS NEW PRODUCTION LINE

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—A Warren firm has won a contract to build a new production line at Armco Steel Corp. here into what Armco believes will be the steel industry's biggest zinc coating plant.

A score of Democrat House leaders toiled over the weekend to reach accord on floor amendments designed to make the complex workmen's compensation bill acceptable to diverse factions.

Rep. Roger Cloud (R-Logan), House minority leader, and Rankin N. Gibson, administrative assistant to Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, participated.

Because of diverse opinions over various sections of the measure and unusually long legislative calendar, leaders expected night sessions to complete action.

Cloud expressed strong opposition to the proposal.

RED DEPUTY HEADING HOME, STILL INSISTING ON PEACE TALK

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov wished the American people "peace and prosperity" today. Then he stepped aboard a Soviet jet plane and took off for Moscow.

In a brief message at the airport he said one of his chief impressions of his visit to the United States is that "the American people as the Russian people are striving for eternal peace between our two countries."

Kozlov said Sunday he agreed with Premier Khrushchev's prediction—made in a televised interview—that the grandchildren of Soviet functionaries who know nothing of revolution first hand.

He said, however, that he believes the system any country adopts should be the internal business of its people.

It was the Soviet first deputy premier's first venture in his totally indoctrinated adult life outside the Communist orbit. It would have been difficult for him not to be impressed by what he saw in the United States.

To a news conference on the eve of his departure for Moscow his trip did not change his mind about one thing: that Kozlov brings glowing reports of the possibilities of doing business with the United States someday under a certain section of American capitalism.

But Khrushchev will be interested

Strike Deadline Still Set for Tuesday Night

Industry Spokesman Throws Cold Water On Peace Settlement

NEW YORK (AP) — Stalled steel negotiations got underway again today at White House bidding but with scant prospect of an agreement to avert a strike at midnight Tuesday.

The union promised to make an all-American try" at negotiating a strike-saving settlement.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, threw cold water on settlement prospects and showed irritation in posing with union President David J. McDonald for photographers.

Cooper said there was only one possible way a strike could be avoided—for the union to again extend its contract.

McDonald, however, ruled out any further delay in a showdown. The union earlier had granted a two-week truce but it expires at midnight Tuesday.

Western diplomats said that in his leadoff speech Herter would offer certain inducements such as a cut in troop strength in West Berlin.

Herter and his colleagues want to know whether in accepting a moratorium with a deadline they would, in the Soviet view, be agreeing to give up their rights when the deadline expires.

Farmers who are eligible to vote in the wheat quota referendum are all those who in 1960 will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain on a farm, except those who are participating in the 1959 feed wheat program.

Under the feed wheat program, farmers may arrange with the county office to grow up to 30 acres of wheat for use only on the farm where grown without being subject to marketing quota penalties.

At least two-thirds of the growers who vote in the referendum approve the quotas, they will main in effect for 1960 — crop wheat and price support will be available to farmers who comply with their farm wheat allotments at least 75 per cent of parity.

Farmers who exceed the larger of the farm allotment or 15 acres will be subject to a marketing penalty of 45 per cent of the wheat parity price on their excess wheat.

If the quotas are not approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting, the quotas and penalties will not be in effect, and price support will be available to farmers who comply with their farm wheat allotment at 50 per cent of parity, as directed by law. At current parity levels, that would be about $1.18 per bushel.

Strike

Hartley law to avert a Tuesday midnight walkout by 500,000 workers in plants making 90 per cent of the nation's steel. This involves appointment of a fact-finding board and an investigation before a court injunction against a strike could be sought.

The desperate nature of the bargaining became clear after an exchange of industry and union proposals Sunday. None of them was accepted by the other side.

The argument boiled down to (1) industry insistence that it must have relief from union work practices that the industry says have saddled it with unnecessary costs since 1947, and (2) union demands that workers are entitled to new wage and benefit boosts.

Steelworkers now average $3.10 per hour earnings. The average price of steel is $150 a ton.

The industry has contended that labor contracts permit overrunning of some operations in steel plants. The industry says the contracts also permit restrictions on employers in scheduling vacations and interference with management in getting full economy gains from new mechanization processes.

The union denied that present contract provisions promote "featherbedding," or unnecessary work assignments.

Business Briefs

Clifton Motor Sales announced this week the opening of what is believed to be the most modernly equipped radiator repair shop in this area. They have installed an Inland 1-piece radiator shop.

The new shop will offer "factory method" radiator servicing for all cars and light trucks and tractors.

Heading up the new department is Sam Eveland who recently returned from two weeks intensive training at the factory.

The radiator shop combines (1) flo-test machine for testing either "on" or "off" the car, (2) hot cleaning vat for "chemical" cleaning—the preferred method, and (3) test and repair bench to speed repairs.

Bills Approved

The Pickaway County Commissioners approved bills and claims against the county for the week ending July 4 in the amount of $8,420.

The Commissioners also approved bills against the County Home totaling $1,545.91.

Intoxication Costs

Hunter Certain, 36, Lowery Lane, was fined $50 and costs in Circleville Municipal Court today on a charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct. He was arrested on an affidavit filed by Martha Wilkins.

Pickaway County Farm Bureau Organization Director Donald Pollett said Hines was one of nearly 30 Ohio farmers invited to attend the meeting because of his past interest and work in education problems of his home county.

Harold Hines Attends Farm Bureau Session

Harold Hines of Ashville attended the Farm Bureau Education Conference at Columbus recently when major school problems were studied and discussed by some of the nation's best authorities on education.

The future general entered the U.S. Military academy in 1899.

On his graduation in 1903, he became a second lieutenant.

He became Army chief of staff in 1930.

'I SHALL RETURN'

Gen. Douglas MacArthur

ALWAYS ADEPT in coining memorable phrases, General of the Army Douglas MacArthur uttered the most memorable of all when he was ordered from beleaguered Bataan and Corregidor to Australia to assume supreme command of Allied forces in the Southwest Pacific in 1942. He fulfilled his promise—"I shall return"—on Oct. 20, 1944, when his troops swarmed ashore in the Philippines. Second only to this in the memory of the public was his statement, upon being relieved of his command in Korea in 1951, that he would "just fade away, an old soldier who tried to do his duty as God gave him the light to see that duty."

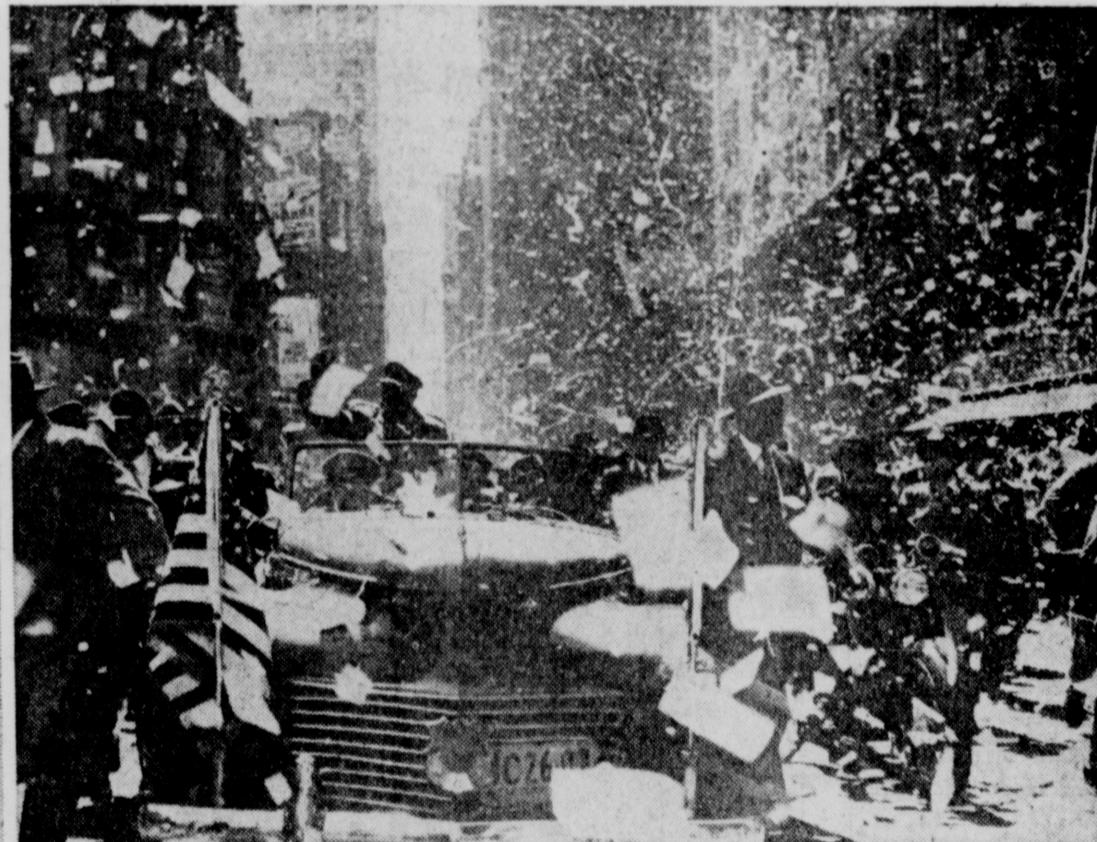

PROMISE WAS FULFILLED when General MacArthur waded ashore with his staff on Leyte in the Philippines in 1944 to launch the reconquest of the islands from Japan.

DECK of battleship Missouri was scene as the general signed documents by which Japan surrendered.

EMPEROR HIROHITO came to see his "boss" in Tokyo two months after Japan had surrendered.

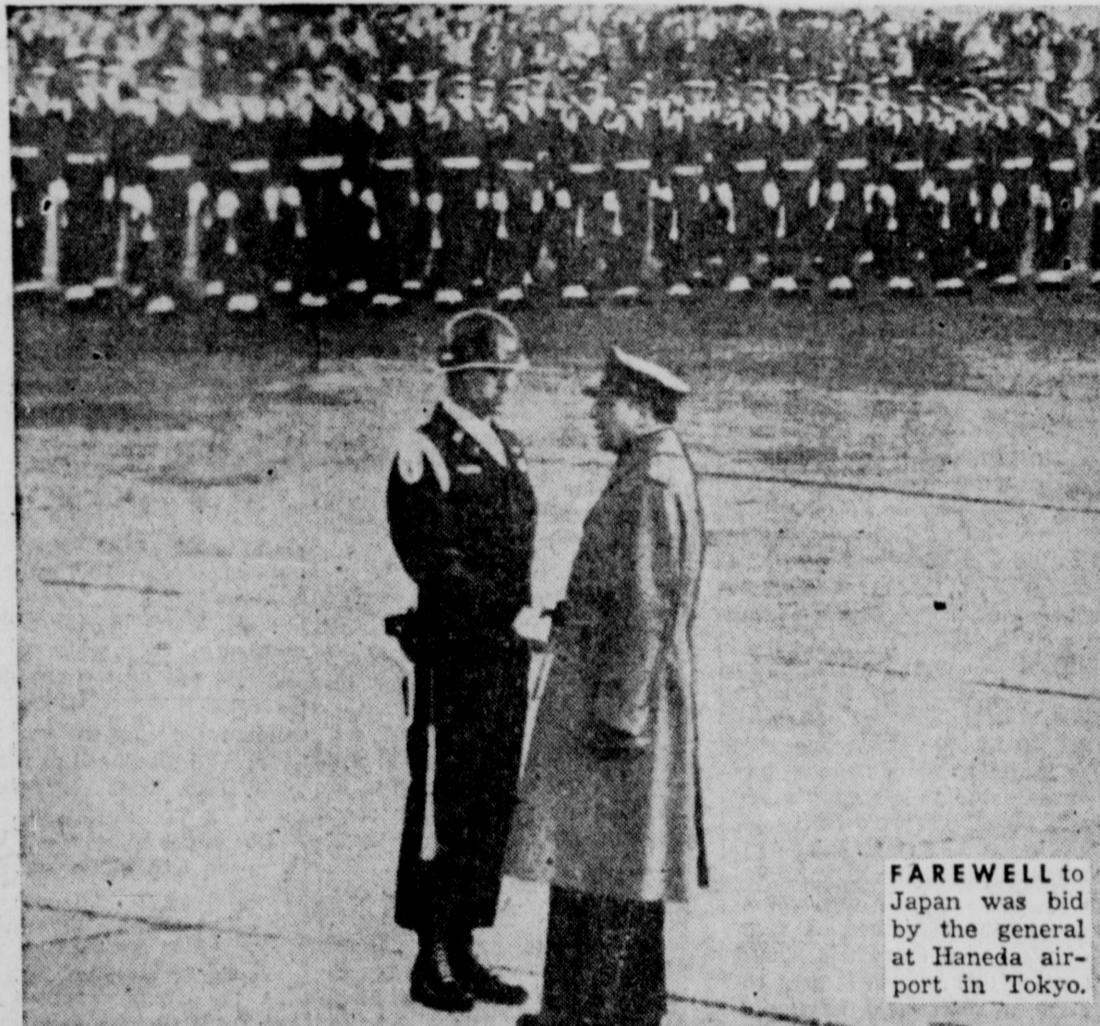

FAREWELL to Japan was bid by the general at Haneda airport in Tokyo.

DISTINGUISHED GUEST on MacArthur's 78th birthday in New York was Vice President Richard Nixon.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN and the general had an apparently friendly conference on Wake Island in October of 1950. Six months later, the President relieved him of command in Korea.

CONGRATULATIONS of his famous father and his mother went to young Arthur MacArthur upon his graduation in New York in 1956 from the Browning School for Boys.

FOLLOWING HIS DISMISSAL from the Far Eastern command in 1951, General MacArthur presented his views on the situation to a joint session of Congress he was invited to address.

County Government Revision

A law has gone into effect in Iowa under which elective offices of counties can be consolidated, excepting only the county attorney and county supervisors (commissioners). Any two more of the other elective offices can be merged — sheriff, treasurer, recorder, auditor and clerk of the district court.

No one expects elected county officials to speed consolidation plans. But sooner or later some of them could be brought around to the idea if the public so desired.

Consolidations can be effected only by a referendum in a county. The petition for such a vote must be signed by voters equal in number to 25 per cent of the vote cast in the last previous election for the county official who received the most votes.

Some merger plans have been suggested. Creation of a department of finance is one. It would take over the duties of some or all of the following officials: auditor, treasurer, assessor and recorder.

Iowans will not hold their breaths waiting for a major revision of their county government system. In the absence of a major issue, such changes are unlikely to occur — the lethargy for even experiments in consolidation is leadership from the officials themselves. And what county official anywhere is going to propose doing away with his own office?

Science Eyes Hay Fever

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Hay fever and asthma sufferers only too often tend to blame the whole ragweed family for their troubles this time of the year. However, the truth is that some pollens cause more sneezes and wheezes than others.

Just why this is true, we don't know, since the exact chemical composition of the portion of the pollen which causes allergic reactions hasn't as yet been determined.

We believe that many allergy-producing materials are protein-like substances and we also think that there probably are still other chemicals which produce allergic manifestations from other substances.

Admittedly, this lack of complete knowledge therefore still hampers our treatment of allergies.

But down at the Southwest Research Institute in San Antonio, Texas, Dr. Fred W. Bieberdorf is conducting a year-long research program to find out why some pollens are more troublesome than others. Moreover, he hopes to determine which substances are common to pollens in the various plant families, thereby helping to pinpoint the causes of hay fever and wheezes than others.

There is no question that there is widespread interest in such a project, since there are an estimated 10,000,000 Americans who suffer the miseries of asthma, hay fever and similar allergies every year.

Dr. Bieberdorf's technique is to "fingerprint" the pollens by letting them draw their own chemical composition picture. A sample of the pollen extract is placed on a paper disk, which is then rotated on a centrifugal chromatograph.

The substances possess different molecular weights. Therefore, they are absorbed on the spinning disk at different rates, separating into bands, each of which may be a pure substance causing one or several allergies. By comparing these bands, or patterns, a rough picture of the similarities or dissimilarities of each pollen can be obtained.

Unfortunately, these studies aren't going to do any of you much good this year. This doesn't mean, however, that science hasn't done anything to aid you this season.

For example, there are several new drugs available.

Among them is a new type of cortisone drug called Aristocort triamcinolone. Some researchers already report they are obtaining "good to excellent" results in about 80 per cent of the hay fever and bronchial asthma patients treated with the drug.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Paul Butler, Democratic national chairman, has had a severe case of double-think. Five years ago, he says, he did not consider segregation a political issue. Now, he says, he does.

This may seem incredible to those Democrats in Congress already mad at him for criticizing them. The question of civil rights, which includes segregation, has been a political issue many years. It gives them a chance to ask: "Mr. Butler, you've been in politics 32 years but where have you been?"

Life has not been exactly jolly for the pepper, 54-year-old Indiana lawyer since he became his party's chief of staff in 1954. He has pot-shot at the Republicans ever since. Last week he fired on his own troops.

He said the Democrats in Congress are not doing enough and are playing too much ball with President Eisenhower. They responded in various ways, including the suggestion he shut up or get out.

Over the weekend he cut loose with more of the same criticism of Democrats and also accused Eisenhower of saying too little on segregation.

Eisenhower has never said whether he thinks the Supreme Court's 1954 ban on public school segregation is good or bad. Last week he said he thinks segregation is immoral when it interferes with a citizen's political or economic opportunity.

This is another way of saying when it interferes with a Negro's right to vote or earn a living. But Eisenhower still left unsaid whether he thinks the principle of segregation itself is immoral.

At a news conference Butler said Eisenhower didn't go far enough. He said: "Segregation is immoral period."

He was then asked about a story in the Atlanta Constitution, which reported that Georgia's Democratic chairman, John Sammons Bell, has a pledge from Butler, written on the back of an envelope, that he would not try to make segregation a national issue.

Butler tried to brush aside the story as "old political business." He said he signed the paper in 1954 when he was elected Democratic chairman; that segregation then was a legal matter "and I did not see any reason to make it a political issue."

He said that was the way he felt about the Supreme Court's ban on public school segregation of May 1954. He was named chairman in December 1954. But he added: Through the "force of circumstances" integration has become a major social interest.

"Any problem that affects any segment of the population must become the concern of a political party," he said.

This is where Democrats angry at Butler could point out that by his reasoning — since the Negro segment of the population has been affected by the segregation problem for generation — it has been a political problem a long time.

They could point out just taking the past 10 years — that it has actually been a very real and explosive political problem particularly in the Democratic party, although Butler didn't seem to think so until recently.

For example:

The Southern Democrats' filibusters against civil rights legislation. Their opposition to President Truman's civil rights program which asked a ban on racial discrimination in voting and employment, the two fields in which Eisenhower says segregation is immoral.

The split in the Democratic party in 1948 when Southerners walked out of the convention because cause of the party's platform plank on civil rights which proclaimed the right of racial and religious minorities to live, work, vote and get full protection of the laws.

Butler could also be reminded of 1952 when he was an original supporter of Adlai Stevenson for president and how the party's platform that year also contained a civil rights plank.

By the time the 1956 presidential year came around Butler was condemning the Eisenhower administration for not doing enough on civil rights and promising the civil rights plank in the 1956 Democratic platform would be stronger than in 1952.

SAAR BACK HOME—German customs officials take down a customs sign on the border which separated the Saar and West Germany as the industrial Saar is returned to the Germans from France. The sign is being moved to the French border. A plebiscite re-unified Saar and Germany.

DAUGHTER MURDERED—Mr. and Mrs. St. Elmo Stafford are too stunned to show emotion over their tragedy as they sit in their Las Vegas, Nev., home, minutes after being told the nude, ravished body of their 6-year-old daughter Delores was found in an attic of a house nearby. Their other daughter, Jeannetta, 14, does not seem to realize as she stands by.

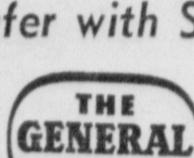

SIAMESE TWINS—These two little girls are the Siamese twins born June 29 in Nyssa, Ore., to Mr. and Mrs. James Stubblefield of Parma, Id. The twins are joined extensively in the abdominal area. They are at the University of Oregon Medical school in Portland for study and separation.

Common Stocks Favored by Private Trusts

American Bankers
Prefer These Funds;
$49 1/4 Billion Invested

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Common stocks are odds-on favorites with the pros who handle the personal trust accounts in American bank and trust companies.

The Trust Division of the American Bankers Assn. estimates today these funds total 49 1/4 billion dollars. And the banks have invested 30 1/4 billion of this, or 62 per cent, in common stocks.

But who's responsible for the investments makes quite a difference.

Of the 30 1/4 billion in common stocks, 18 1/2 billion is in funds where the bank has no investment responsibility or shares it with others. Where the bank has sole responsibility, the common stock holding comes to 12 billion dollars, or 39 per cent of the total.

Since the survey of the funds as at the end of 1958 was the first to be made, ABA has no comparison figures. It cannot say if the amounts in common stocks have been rising or falling, or if the total in trust accounts has been growing.

The survey is based on a sampling from 121 selected trust institutions with a total of 185,000 accounts. ABA says the estimates should be accurate within five per cent.

The report sheds light on some of the investing habits of Americans.

According to ABA figures, the nearly 500 billion dollars in trust funds compare with about 277 billion in the market value of all common stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, with 86 billion dollars in reserves of life insurance companies (less premium notes and policy loans).

The report lists 60 billion dollars in time deposits in commercial banks, 48 billion in savings and loan associations (less share deposited against mortgage loans or investments by the U.S. government), 34 billion in time deposits in mutual savings banks and 13 billion in mutual funds held by open-end companies.

Americans have many other billions invested in various kind of government bonds, in corporate bonds, in pension funds, and in real estate.

In handling the personal trust accounts, ABA says, the banks in addition to common stocks have invested nearly eight billion dollars in state and municipal securities; 2 1/2 billion in U.S. government securities; almost as much in corporate bond and debentures; 2 1/2 billion in preferred stocks; 671 million in mortgages and 2 1/4 billion dollars in participation in common trust funds.

These are funds authorized by law to be established by a trust department to combine money belonging to various trust accounts lows: Mrs. Francis Kelley, president; Mrs. Charles Miller, first vice president; Mrs. Lyman Dresbach Sr., second vice president; Mrs. O. H. Targee, treasurer; Mrs. Russell Harper, secretary; Mrs. Lawrence Betz, chaplain.

Mrs. Chester presented a past president's pin to Mrs. James Search Sr., retiring president. The new president, Mrs. Kelley, presented a gift to Mrs. Chester.

The next meeting will be held at the Legion Home, Sept. 1.

Transit Explosions Crop Up Despite Tightest Regulations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Every day, unnoticed by the general public, hundreds of shipments of highly explosive and inflammable products go across the country by railroad, truck and water carriers.

Congress may be asked to provide tighter safety regulations.

Nearly always, detailed investigation discloses human failure, or a combination of unforeseen circumstances beyond the reach of any regulation, however rigid.

All four of the recent major accidents in this field involved liquefied petroleum gas. Two were on railroads, two on highways.

On June 2, at Schuykill Haven, Pa., a school bus made a routine stop on a highway to pick up a child. A propane tank truck stopped behind the bus. But another truck hit the rear of the propane vehicle.

A gasoline fire broke out in the wreckage as the school bus was driven safely away from the scene. About 40 minutes later, after a crowd had gathered, the propane truck—overheated by the gasoline fire—blew up, killing 16 persons and injuring 15 others.

On June 28 a Sunday afternoon crowd had gathered at a recreation area on the Ogeechee River near Meldrim, Ga., to swim, fish and boat near a low, wooden railroad trestle.

When a freight train started across the trestle, some saw at least one of its cars derail. A moment later, sheets of searing flame blanketed the recreation area as two tank cars carrying butane exploded. Twenty-three persons were fatally burned, many more injured.

Last Dec. 22 at Brownfield, Tex., a propane truck collided with another vehicle at a street intersection. Its twin tanks exploded. Four firemen were killed, 150 spectators injured.

Jan. 23 a long freight train caught fire after a derailment near Monroe, La. A propylene car finally burst. Eight train employees were killed, 75 other persons were injured.

Transit Explosions Crop Up Despite Tightest Regulations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Every day, unnoticed by the general public, hundreds of shipments of highly explosive and inflammable products go across the country by railroad, truck and water carriers.

Surrounded by the most elaborate set of safety rules applied to any freight item, they reach distant destinations in huge volume without incident.

But every now and then something goes wrong and holocaust results. It has happened four times in the last eight months. Forty five persons were killed, more than 250 injured.

Congress may be asked to provide tighter safety regulations.

Nearly always, detailed investigation discloses human failure, or a combination of unforeseen circumstances beyond the reach of any regulation, however rigid.

Going Away with Kids Along? Take Some Toys on the Trip

Worshipping the sun for hours on end may be an absorbing pastime for the adult contingent but children, to be happy on the beach or in the backyard for any length of time need a variety of active and quiet play interests to enjoy without disturbing the grownups.

The Toy Guidance Council, an educational group which advises game manufacturers on games designed for the small fry, urges vacation-bound parents to reserve space for the children's play activities, whether the jaunt is just to the beach for the day or a month-long sojourn in the country.

The stay-at-home child, too, needs constructive play equipment for outdoor play suitable to his age. Nagging the youngsters away from the TV set and out into the sun is often not enough.

Car travel deserves special advance planning if parents wish to maintain juvenile contentment.

HEADING FOR FALL—Chanda's fedora (upper) and Miss Alice's revival of the Garbo slouch (lower) are two creations for fall shown at the Millinery Creators of America "salute to the industry" in New York. The fedora is done in cherry red satin with wide grosgrain band and features a lacy veil. The slouch is in Somali leopard, with soft, high crown and a ripple brim of brown jersey.

The new clothes are relaxed in line, easy to wear, with natural waistlines and no distortions. Nothing fits tightly, and the body has room to move within its clothes.

The new suits tend to men's worsteds, with longer, man-tailored jackets and slender skirts often tapered at the hemline.

Many suits are belted, and jackets may be anywhere from hipbone to tunic length, with some extending to a few inches above the hemline. The drama comes in lush fur linings or great fluffy fur collars, in accessories such as tall fur hats and muffs.

The wide and varied use of fur trimmings is one of the most important trends in fall fashion. Fur-collared or fur-lined coats are everywhere, fur accessories are worn with untrimmed suits and dresses and even cocktail dresses may blossom out with fur accents anywhere from neckline to hem or in between.

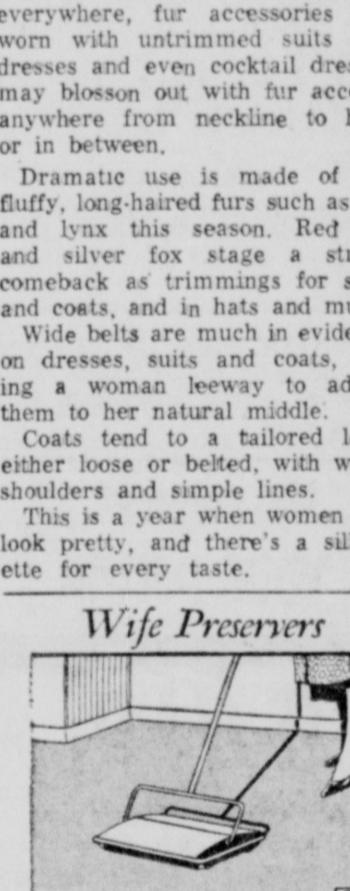

Dramatic use is made of the fluffy, long-haired furs such as fox and lynx this season. Red fox and silver fox stage a strong comeback as trimmings for suits and coats, and in hats and muffs.

Wide belts are much in evidence on dresses, suits and coats, giving a woman leeway to adjust them to her natural middle.

Coats tend to a tailored look, either loose or belted, with wider shoulders and simple lines.

This is a year when women will look pretty, and there's a silhouette for every taste.

Going Away with Kids Along? Take Some Toys on the Trip

Worshipping the sun for hours on end may be an absorbing pastime for the adult contingent but children, to be happy on the beach or in the backyard for any length of time need a variety of active and quiet play interests to enjoy without disturbing the grownups.

The Toy Guidance Council, an educational group which advises game manufacturers on games designed for the small fry, urges vacation-bound parents to reserve space for the children's play activities, whether the jaunt is just to the beach for the day or a month-long sojourn in the country.

The stay-at-home child, too, needs constructive play equipment for outdoor play suitable to his age. Nagging the youngsters away from the TV set and out into the sun is often not enough.

Car travel deserves special advance planning if parents wish to maintain juvenile contentment.

New Fall Fashions Feature Lots of Luxury, Simple Lines

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — Off-hand opulence is the keynote of fall fashions.

This is the word from New York designers, opening a crowded week of fall style previews for the visiting fashion press, in the 32nd National Press Week of the New York Dress Institute.

The Rev. Earl C. Bowser, pastor, read from Scripture and offered prayer.

The group discussed ways and means of making money for projects planned by the class.

Refreshments were served to the group by the host and hostess. The annual class picnic will be held Sunday at the Lancaster Camp Ground.

Lavish furs and lush fabrics are cut as casually as a schoolgirl's raincoat. Glittering brocade appears in simple shirtwaist dresses. Man-tailored suits sport fabulous fur linings or collars.

Fashion, being a woman, is enjoying a season of contradictions.

She goes to the theater in a gold trench coat and a slouch hat, shows up for work in a menswear worsted suit bearing a fortune in furs. She wears a fedora and carries a swagger stick, but her little-boy coat is lined in sable.

It's the same spirit that inspired the renowned Marlene Dietrich to wear a white ermine polo coat with slacks, and that impelled designer Valentino to observe that "mink is for football games."

It's an all-American attitude of taking luxuries for granted, a sort of ostentation in reverse, like taking your limousine for a sports car.

You wear the most luxurious furs, fabrics and jewels with nonchalance. You never look fussy or overdressed whether you're clothed in brocade or denim. The more fabulous the fabric of your costume, the simpler the cut.

Though there are no extreme changes in silhouette for fall, there is a whole new mood throughout the collections. Almost everything has a tailored, understated, subtly sophisticated look, whether it's a tweed suit or a satin evening dress.

The new clothes are relaxed in line, easy to wear, with natural waistlines and no distortions. Nothing fits tightly, and the body has room to move within its clothes.

The new suits tend to men's styles, with longer, man-tailored jackets and slender skirts often tapered at the hemline.

Many suits are belted, and jackets may be anywhere from hipbone to tunic length, with some extending to a few inches above the hemline.

The drama comes in lush fur linings or great fluffy fur collars, in accessories such as tall fur hats and muffs.

The wide and varied use of fur trimmings is one of the most important trends in fall fashion. Fur-collared or fur-lined coats are everywhere, fur accessories are worn with untrimmed suits and dresses and even cocktail dresses may blossom out with fur accents anywhere from neckline to hem or in between.

Dramatic use is made of the fluffy, long-haired furs such as fox and lynx this season. Red fox and silver fox stage a strong comeback as trimmings for suits and coats, and in hats and muffs.

Wide belts are much in evidence on dresses, suits and coats, giving a woman leeway to adjust them to her natural middle.

Coats tend to a tailored look, either loose or belted, with wider shoulders and simple lines.

This is a year when women will look pretty, and there's a silhouette for every taste.

The fedora is done in cherry red satin with wide grosgrain band and features lacy veil. The slouch is in somal leopard, with soft, high crown and a ripple brim of brown jersey.

TV Softballers Win Two Games

Long Hits Stop Delaware Nine

Stonerock's TV displayed some lusty hitting in taking two softball games from the Delaware Indians in exhibition play last night at Ted Lewis Park.

The local sluggers won the first test, 10-0, and returned to post a 13-2 decision in the second battle.

Hitting was the order of the evening for the TV players as they collected 15 bingles in the first encounter and 17 in the second.

Leading the swatting parade were Fred Davis and Butch Manion who poked a Homer in each game. Manion went three for three in the first test, with two doubles in addition to his circuit blast. Davis had three bingles in four trips in the opening battle and went two for four in the second.

ADDITIONAL hitting honors went to Leonard Rush who was three for three in the first game and to Roy Downing who collected four hits in four tries in the second tilt, after going three for four in the first.

Triples were poked by Don Neff in the first game and Downing in the second.

Pitchers Manion and Harry Strawser teamed for the first win and Kenny Reid did the trick in the second. Strawser and Manion allowed only five hits.

Reid also gave up five hits in his game, but whiffed 16 and walked only three.

Buchanan was on the mound for Delaware in the opener and Hughes took the loss in the finale.

Herrera had five hits in nine at bats Sunday, including 4-for-4 in the uncompleted seven inning nightcap.

New Redleg Pilot Sees Hidden Power

CINCINNATI (AP)—When Mayo Smith was fired last week as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, he left his successor, Fred Hutchinson, a neat legacy—Johnny Temple, Frank Robinson and Vada Pinson.

Sunday, Temple, who is batting .318 and has four home runs, climaxed the trio's activities by scooting home in the ninth with the deciding run in the Redlegs' 4-3 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The little native of North Carolina has been among the Reds leading hitters all season.

Robinson, who started off slow, is now hitting .327. He blasted his 20th home run of the year Sunday and has 76 RBIs.

Pinson is beginning to shake off a mid-season batting slump which dropped him from among the league's top hitters.

Smith had said before leaving, "We win when Robinson, Pinson and Temple are hitting."

The game was tied 3-3 in the ninth inning Sunday when Temple came up to bat in a two-out situation. He walked.

When Pinson followed with a single, Temple streaked to third base and then scored on a single by Gus Bell.

Pinson got two hits Sunday, the first was his 13th home run of the season which started Cincinnati scoring in the first inning.

Catcher Ed Bailey followed in the second inning with another home run. But the Rhinelanders blew the lead two innings later.

The week after winning the National Open golf title, Billy Casper tied for 14th place in the Canadian Open with 283, one stroke more than he took in the U. S. Open.

Bob Rosburg, runnerup in the 1959 National Open golf tournament, tied for fifth place in the Canadian Open one week later.

TV Softballers Win Two Games

Long Hits Stop Delaware Nine

Stonerock's TV displayed some lusty hitting in taking two softball games from the Delaware Indians in exhibition play last night at Ted Lewis Park.

The local sluggers won the first test, 10-6, and returned to post a 13-2 decision in the second battle.

Hitting was the order of the evening for the TV players as they collected 15 bingles in the first encounter and 17 in the second.

Leading the swatting parade were Fred Davis and Butch Manion who poked a Homer in each game. Manion went three for three in the first test, with two doubles in addition to his circuit blast. Davis had three bingles in four trips in the opening battle and went two for four in the second.

ADDITIONAL hitting honors went to Leonard Rush who was three for three in the first game and to Roy Downing who collected four hits in four tries in the second tilt, after going three for four in the first.

Trips were poked by Don Neff in the first game and Downing in the second.

Pitchers Manion and Harry Strawser teamed for the first win and Kenny Reid did the trick in the second. Strawser and Manion allowed only five hits.

The Oilmen took a 3-2 second inning lead over the First after it tallied a run in each of the first two innings. The Bankers scored two in the third and tied Circleville Oil at 4-4.

BEHIND THE STEADY hitting of the top of its batting order, First National climbed into the lead with two-run fourth inning.

Scoring halted until the top of the sixth when the Oilmen jumped on reliever, Buddy Strehle, for three hits and an error for three runs and the margin.

The stage was set for Evans climaxing home run when loser, Funk, walked Tommy Evans and gave up two singles to Clifton and Jim Strous.

Leatherwood started for First National and was relieved by newcomer, Strehle, who picked up the win in the third, Strehle walked two and fanned seven. Leatherwood issued two walks.

Loser Funk, another stranger to the league, walked five and whiffed four. Evans provided all First National's power hitting with his Homer and a double.

Funk battered out two doubles and Charles Griffey smashed a home run. Each squad committed two errors. First National garnered 10 hits to Circleville Oil's, seven.

BOTH TEAMS have identical records of 3-3. Today's minor league action pits Lincoln Plastic (2-3) against Second National (2-2) at 5:30 p. m. on the little diamond.

Ralston Purina (4-4) will try to conquer The Herald (6-1) for the first time at 5:30 p. m. on the softball diamond. The Herald has already won the first round in the majors.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

The Figure Figures Here

DEAR ABBY: I am 28 and my husband is 29. We've been married for nine years and have two children. A well-built neighbor girl started coming to our house in her bathing suit. (There's no place to swim within 20 miles of here.) She is 17 and very cute and likes to horse around with my husband. She asks him to drive her to the grocery which is within walking distance. He jumps at the chance. I don't like the way he looks at her. Am I silly to be jealous? He never gave me cause to worry before.

JEALOUS

DEAR JEALOUS: A girl who visits in her bathing suit is a cinch to have it well "figured" out. Tell your husband you love him and don't want him "horsing around" with this girl. Inform her that she isn't to come over unless she is fully dressed. Little girls grow up fast, and some men never grow up.

BEAT

DEAR BEAT: You'll never discourage your guests by giving them the Waldorf treatment. Make it a DO-IT-YOURSELF VACATION: If your sister-in law doesn't offer to help—ask her to. People who let others impose on them in the name of hospitality deserve the aching back that is sure to follow.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Dear Abby...

The Figure Figures Here

DEAR ABBY: I am 28 and my husband is 29. We've been married for nine years and have two children. A well-built neighbor girl started coming to our house in her bathing suit. (There's no place to swim within 20 miles of here.) She is 17 and very cute and likes to horse around with my husband. She asks him to drive her to the grocery which is within walking distance. He jumps at the chance. I don't like the way he looks at her. Am I silly to be jealous? He never gave me cause to worry before.

JEALOUS

DEAR JEALOUS: A girl who visits in her bathing suit is a cinch to have it well "figured" out. Tell your husband you love him and don't want him "horsing around" with this girl. Inform her that she isn't to come over unless she is fully dressed. Little girls grow up fast, and some men never grow up.

BEAT

DEAR BEAT: You'll never discourage your guests by giving them the Waldorf treatment. Make it a DO-IT-YOURSELF VACATION: If your sister-in-law doesn't offer to help—ask her to. People who let others impose on them in the name of hospitality deserve the aching back that is sure to follow.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ike Writes To Girls at Scout Roundup

(Here is another in a series of letters from Katherine Measamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Measamer, Knollwood Village, who, along with three other local girls, is attending the Girl Scout Senior Roundup.)

By KATHERINE MEASAMER
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. — President Dwight D. Eisenhower has sent a letter to Mrs. Charles W. Culmer expressing his best wishes for the success of the Girl Scout Roundup.

The letter read:

"To Mrs. Charles W. Culmer, national president of Girl Scouts of U. S. A."

"From White House, Washington, D. C. President Dwight D. Eisenhower

"Please give my greetings to those attending the Senior Roundup of the Girl Scouts of the United States of America. The inspiring background of the Rocky Mountains and the high ideals of the Girl Scouts provide a splendid setting for your meeting."

"With Senior Scouts and leaders from all parts of the country, you will be able to make great plans for the coming year."

"I am delighted to add my best wishes for a memorable Roundup."

Dwight D. Eisenhower

A pony express rider delivered the letter to Mrs. Culmer who read it to the 10,000 campers and several thousand visitors.

Campers are now finishing the last days of Roundup. Packing has been started and the last swaps are being traded.

The girls from Circleville will be leaving camp Monday at 6 a. m. and will arrive at the Union Station in Columbus 9:10 p. m. Tuesday evening.

The past 10 days have been very exciting and a new experience for all of us. We will not soon forget the Roundup.

Living Room 'Gunslinger' Easily Outdraws TV Stars

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Wyatt Earp, Paladin and other television gunslingers don't know it—but they are regularly beaten to the draw by a tall-in-the-armchair varmint they've never seen.

Getting the drop on TV's best gunfighters is a hobby of Gordon Clark, a lanky 27-year-old bunched up to his living room TV set.

About a year ago when Western fan Clark decided to test just how quick televisions' cowpokes really are. He bought a Colt .44, loaded it with blanks and lashed it to his leg. Then he tuned in "Gunsmoke" and waited for Marshal Dillon to make his play.

"Dillon's the fastest," said Clark, who since that first test has bitten the living room carpet many times before the marshal's whip-quick draw.

Armed Revolt In Honduras Fails Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department reports that for the second time in two months the Honduran government has crushed an armed revolt led by the same man.

The department quoted the U. S. Embassy in Tegucigalpa as saying Sunday's revolt was short-lived but that there was heavy firing in the area around police headquarters in Tegucigalpa.

The embassy said government troops and police beat back the attack, launched with a few pieces of field artillery as well as rifles and pistols.

The reports named the leader of the revolt as Armando Veleasquez Cerrato, former army chief of staff, and said by agreement he was permitted to leave the Central American country again.

(The Associated Press has received no direct word from Tegucigalpa since early Sunday night. That dispatch, delayed some hours in transmission, said firing was continuing throughout the city but centered around the police headquarters, "which seems to be the center of the revolt.")

The State Department received no information on the number of troops involved in the fighting.

But travelers arriving in Nica ragua from Honduras Sunday night said more than 100 persons were killed in the fighting. They said police, cadets of the Military Academy and troops at the San Francisco barracks took part in the revolt.

Veleasquez led an attack by 500 rebels last May 11 on Gracias, a state capital in western Honduras. Those rebels were driven into the mountains and Veleasquez reportedly took refuge in Costa Rica.

Eleven provinces comprise the Netherlands.

Clark's special clay pigeon is Paladin, the erudite knight errant of "Have Gun Will Travel."

"I never worry about Paladin with either his .44 or Derringer," Clark said. "You always know a second before he draws."

Steve McQueen, the method-acting bounty hunter of "Wanted Dead or Alive," is another soft touch.

"He's never beaten me with that screwy Mary's Leg," said Clark with a practiced curl of the lip. "I can't imagine any real gunfighter using a weapon like that."

Here's how Clark rates some of the others:

Bat Masterson — "A pompous fake. Never fooled me with that phony cane-gun."

Cheyenne — "Too clumsy to be a real threat."

Wells Fargo's Dale Robertson — "He's got good fast reflexes, but he takes too long to fire."

Chuck Connors, "The Rifleman" — "One of the fastest. I rarely beat him. Just can't keep up with that repeatin' Winchester rifle."

Maj. Seth Adams of "Wagon Train" — "Too old and fat. This gunfightin' is a young fellow's game."

But Clark is no village braggart who goads a rival into a fight. He sits in an easy chair at his home in nearby Capistrano Beach and calmly and confidently watches the TV screen. When he senses trouble, he gets up, stands with left foot forward and waits for the other fellow to make his play.

And when Clark fans that six-gun it can be heard all over Capistrano Beach.

"At least that's what the neighbors tell me," says Clark.

$28,000,000 — Gerald Cavendish Grosvenor, 7, points his toy gun at the family estate in Enniskillen, North Ireland, blissfully unaware that he is about to come into a tidy $28,000,000. It's the bulk of the estate of the late second Duke of Westminster, and is the largest in Britain aside from the royal family's. The duke's art treasures are being sold to meet vast death duties on his "private empire" valued at approximately $150,000,000.

Dem Senator Raps Republican Objections to Envoy Bohlen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) said today it will be a shame if Republican objections block the appointment of Charles E. Bohlen as chief State Department adviser on Soviet affairs.

Senate Republican leaders have protested to Secretary of State Christian A. Herter against the proposed reassignment for Bohlen, a former Ambassador to Moscow who is filling a similar post in the Philippines.

Commenting on these protests, Mansfield said in an interview:

"It would be a shame, in view of the tense situation involving the two great powers of the world, if the government should lose the services of one of the very few men qualified by training, experience and linguistics to cope with the Russians."

Herter has been considering a plan to set up a special Russian desk within the State Department to handle the many problems affecting U.S. relations with that country. There have been clear indications that he would like to use Bohlen's knowledge of Russia and its language by putting the ambassador in charge as a top adviser on Soviet matters.

But Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH), head of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, have protested the choice of Bohlen.

Dirksen and Bridges are known to have told Herter that not only they but some other Senate Republicans are opposed to giving Bohlen a top ranking job in the department.

The Republican opposition stems from Bohlen's defense of the agreement made between Franklin D. Roosevelt, Winston Churchill and Joseph Stalin at Yalta.

These agreements were denounced in the 1952 Republican platform plank drafted by the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Gov. Ernest Vandiver

GOVERNOR ON SPOT—The order of U. S. District Judge Frank A. Hooper for the Atlanta, Ga., board of education to produce a plan for a "prompt and reasonable start" toward school desegregation by Dec. 1 puts Georgia's Gov. Ernest Vandiver squarely on the spot. He has pledged to permit no form of integration so long as he is governor. He's worrying through the situation with constitutional lawyers.

Tarloton Plans
Community Bible Study School

A Daily Vacation Bible School will be held for two weeks beginning July 20 in Tarloton, with the topic for study "The Bible". The school will be a community project under the leadership of the Rev. William Doster of the Presbyterian Church.

The embassy said government troops and police beat back the attack, launched with a few pieces of field artillery as well as rifles and pistols.

The reports named the leader of the revolt as Armando Veleasquez Cerrato, former army chief of staff, and said by agreement he was permitted to leave the Central American country again.

The Associated Press has received no direct word from Tegucigalpa since early Sunday night.

That dispatch, delayed some hours in transmission, said firing was continuing throughout the city but centered around the police headquarters, "which seems to be the center of the revolt."

The State Department received no information on the number of troops involved in the fighting.

But travelers arriving in Nica ragua from Honduras Sunday night said more than 100 persons were killed in Tegucigalpa. They said police, cadets of the Military Academy and troops at the San Francisco barracks took part in the revolt.

Veleasquez led an attack by 500 rebels last May 11 on Gracias, a state capital in western Honduras. Those rebels were driven into the mountains and Veleasquez reportedly took refuge in Costa Rica.

The Junior group will convene in the Lutheran Church with the Rev. William Doster in charge.

The Junior High division will be held in the Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Ronald Brand directing.

Living Room 'Gunslinger' Easily Outdraws TV Stars

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Wyatt Earp, Paladin and other television gunslingers don't know it—but they are regularly beaten to the draw by a tall-in-the-armchair varmint they've never seen.

Getting the drop on TV's best gunfighters is a hobby of Gordon Clark, a lanky 27-year-old hummed up to his living room TV set.

About a year ago when Western fan Clark decided to test just how quick television's cowpokes really are. He bought a Colt .44, loaded it with blanks and lashed it to his leg. Then he tuned in "Gunsmoke" and waited for Marshal Dillon to make his play.

"Dillon's the fastest," said Clark, who since that first test has bitten the living room carpet many times before the marshal's whip-quick draw.

Armed Revolt In Honduras Fails Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department reports that for the second time in two months the Honduran government has crushed an armed revolt led by the same man.

The department quoted the U.S. Embassy in Tegucigalpa as saying Sunday's revolt was short-lived but that there was heavy firing in the area around police headquarters in Tegucigalpa.

The embassy said government troops and police beat back the attack, launched with a few pieces of field artillery as well as rifles and pistols.

The reports named the leader of the revolt as Armando Veleasquez Cerrato, former army chief of staff, and said by agreement he was permitted to leave the Central American country again.

Clark's special clay pigeon is Paladin, the erudite knight errant of "Have Gun Will Travel."

"I never worry about Paladin with either his .44 or Derringer," Clark said. "You always know a second before he draws."

Steve McQueen, the method-acting bounty hunter of "Wanted Dead or Alive," is another soft touch.

"He's never beaten me with that screwy Mary's Leg," said Clark with a practiced curl of the lip.

"I can't imagine any real gunfighter using a weapon like that."

Here's how Clark rates some of the others:

Bat Masterson — "A pompous fake. Never fooled me with that phony cane-gun."

Cheyenne — "Too clumsy to be a real threat."

Wells Fargo's Dale Robertson — "He's got good fast reflexes, but takes too long to fire."

Chuck Connors, "The Rifleman" — "One of the fastest. I rarely beat him. Just can't keep up with that repeatin' Winchester rifle."

Maj. Seth Adams of "Wagon Train" — "Too old and fat. This gunfightin' is a young fellow's game."

But Clark is no village braggart who goads a rival into a fight. He sits in an easy chair at his home in nearby Capistrano Beach and calmly and confidently watches the TV screen. When he senses trouble, he gets up, stands with left foot forward and waits for the other fellow to make his play.

And when Clark fans that six-gun it can be heard all over Capistrano Beach.

"At least that's what the neighbors tell me," says Clark.

Dem Senator Raps Republican Objections to Envoy Bohlen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) said today it will be a shame if Republican objections block the appointment of Charles E. Bohlen as chief State Department adviser on Soviet affairs.

Senate Republican leaders have protested to Secretary of State Christian A. Herter against the proposed reassignment for Bohlen, a former Ambassador to Moscow who is filling a similar post in the Philippines.

Commenting on these protests, Mansfield said in an interview:

"It would be a shame, in view of the tense situation involving the two great powers of the world, if the government should lose the services of one of the very few men qualified by training, experience and linguistics to cope with the Russians."

Herter has been considering a plan to set up a special Russian desk within the State Department to handle the many problems affecting U.S. relations with that country. There have been clear indications he would like to use Bohlen's knowledge of Russia and its language by putting the ambassador in charge as a top adviser on Soviet matters.

But Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH), head of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, have protested the choice of Bohlen.

Dirksen and Bridges are known to have told Herter that not only they but some other Senate Republicans are opposed to giving Bohlen a top ranking job in the department.

The Republican opposition stems from Bohlen's defense of the agreement made between Franklin D. Roosevelt, Winston Churchill and Joseph Stalin at Yalta.

These agreements were denounced in the 1952 Republican platform plank drafted by the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

ROUGH STUFF — Actor Keenan Wynn is shown with estranged wife Shirley, 26, in a happier day—that is, before she accused him of kicking and beating her and throwing her mother, Mrs. Blanche Hudson, to the floor three times when the mother sought to call authorities. All this alleged rough stuff took place in their Malibu, Calif., home, they say.
